

REVIEW PROCESS FOR ALATEEN GUIDELINES AND FORMS

The October 15, 2011 Vermont Area Assembly supports the change in the review process for Area 56 Alateen Guidelines from annually to every three years beginning with Panel 53 in January 1, 2013. The Assembly charges this review responsibility be completed by the Panel within the first quarter of their term with any changes or updates to be brought before the Panel's first Assembly (Spring) for vote/approval. Subsequent to the Assembly review, revision date and any changes must be documented on all guidelines and forms followed by update to the Vermont Area website for completeness.

2015 AMENDED REVIEW PROCESS

FOR ALATEEN GUIDELINES AND FORMS

At the beginning of his/her term, the Alateen Coordinator shall review the Vermont Area 56 Alateen Guidelines and Forms and present any changes or updates to the Area World Service Committee (AWSC).

The AWSC shall refer any recommendations to the Area Assembly for vote/approval.

Subsequent to the Assembly vote/approval of changes or updates, the revision date and any changes shall be documented on all guidelines and forms followed by update to the Vermont Area website.